PRACTICAL TIPS FOR MAKING FAMILY DEVOTIONS A DAILY HABIT:

- 1. Keep it simple. If family devotions have a lot of extra elements, they will be too difficult to plan and too long to practice every day.
- 2. Plan a rhythm. Pick a time and place and STICK with it. Don't expect family devotions to just happen — plan WHEN they will happen.
- 3. Habit stacking. Attach family devotions to a daily habit that your family already has. This makes it harder to forget and easier to actually do.
- 4. Prioritize it. Make the commitment that you WILL have family devotions, even if it interrupts other activities (like bedtime routines).
- 5. Track your habits. Not to get legalistic, but to reward success. Don't break your streak. You or your kids can even color in our printable habit tracker.
- 6. Get a guide. You don't need to plan your family devotions from scratch every day. Family devotionals from God Centered Family give you everything you need to teach your kids the Bible in ten minutes each day.
